

Greek 101-102 (Elementary Ancient Greek I-II) Course Outcomes and Programmatic Alignment

Students will be able to:	Outcome assessments	Programmatic alignment read aloud passages of simple classical Greek prose in a manner commonly accepted, to translate, and to complete exercises illustrating features of syntax, style, and linguistic register;	recitations translation quizzes tests	1b explain grammatical concepts and understand the difference between this language and English/other Germanic languages;	recitations translation quizzes	1b, 4a discern and explain meanings of unfamiliar words so as to develop understanding of both Greek and its influence on English word-formation;	translation presentations quizzes	1b, 4a know and understand the use of the declensions of Greek nouns, adjectives, demonstratives, articles, and other declined words and the conjugations of verbs in all tenses, moods and voices;	recitations translation quizzes tests	1b gain a rudimentary understanding of Greek history from the Homeric through Roman imperial eras including knowledge of important authors, places, cultural developments and historical events;	presentations quizzes tests	2a, 2b demonstrate an appreciation of the history of ideas in the Hellenic world, particularly in classical Athens, and recognition of the influence of these on later cultures (particularly Roman, western European, and the U.S.).	presentations tests	1b, 2a, 3a, 3b, 4b, 5a