

Greek 201 (Intermediate Classical Greek) Course Outcomes and Programmatic Alignment

Students will be able to:	Outcome assessments	Programmatic alignment demonstrate ability to read aloud fluidly connected passages of simple classical Greek prose in a manner commonly accepted, to translate, and to complete exercises illustrating complex features of syntax, style, and linguistic register;	recitations translation quizzes tests	1b understand and recognize the difference between this language and English/other Germanic languages;	recitations translation quizzes	1b, 4a demonstrate development of ability to discern meanings of unfamiliar words so as to develop understanding of both Greek and its influence on English word-formation;	translation presentations quizzes	1b, 4a demonstrate development of an appreciation of the history of ideas in the Hellenic world, particularly in classical Athens, and the influence of these on later cultures (particularly Roman and western European).	presentations essays tests	1b, 2a, 3a, 3b, 4b, 5a, 5b