

SPAN 314 (Introduction to Reading Hispanic Texts)
 Course Outcomes and Programmatic Alignment

Students will be able to	Outcomes Assessments	Programmatic Alignment
Read and comprehend authentic texts in the target language with a demonstrated awareness of content, style, theme and structure.	Exams Written research essays	1a, 1b, 3b, 4b
Identify, through oral and written work in the target language, the basic characteristics of at least three literary genres (narrative, poetry, drama, essay)	Exams Oral presentations Written research essays	1c
Demonstrate the ability to use critical literary terms to discuss and analyze texts in the target language	Oral presentations Written research essays	1a, 1b, 1c, 2a, 2b
Demonstrate through oral and written work in the target language familiarity with a selection of the best-known authors of the Spanish-speaking world and the themes central to their experiences.	Exams Oral presentations Written research essays	1a, 2a