

German 201 - 202 (Intermediate German I and II)
 Course Outcomes and Programmatic Alignment

Students will be able to:	Outcomes Assessment	Programmatic Alignment
Converse in German about personal events, memorable experiences and with preparation, discuss emotions, opinions and individual perspectives and be understood by German speakers accustomed to interacting with language learners.	Pair and group work Oral quiz	1a, 1c
Use appropriate vocabulary as well as structural and idiomatic communicative structures in order to talk and write effectively about select cities and topics in the target language.	Tests and quizzes Compositions Partner interviews Short summaries	1b, 1c, 2a, 4a
Demonstrate an understanding of German spoken at normal speed (with some repetition) from a variety of sources and formats	Tests and quizzes	1b
Demonstrate an understanding of written and aural texts in the target language on familiar topics and topics related to the course content by identifying main ideas and some supporting information.	Tests and quizzes Short summaries Group work Final project	1b, 2a, 2b
Write texts (letters, essays, summaries, etc.) on topics of a personal, social or cultural nature related to issues discussed in class using simple paragraphs and various time frames.	Short Compositions Writing sections of tests	1a, 1b, 1c, 3a, 3b, 4b
Gather information about familiar topics and a selection of current topics and share this information in the target language (orally and/or in writing) with others.	Class presentations Pair and group work Final paper Final presentation	1a, 1c
Demonstrate a familiarity with geographic, historical, political and cultural factors relevant to the German- speaking world in the 20 th and 21 st centuries.	Essays Exams Group debates and discussions	2a, 2b 3a, 3b
Use knowledge of their own and the target culture(s) to describe and interpret cultural practices, products and perspectives associated with specific cities and recognize differences and similarities between the target culture(s) and their own culture(s).	Essays Exams Group discussions	2a, 2b 4a, 4b